

Glory Shakes The Ground

Written Prayers of James E. Hurley

A New OBU Centennial Series Book

A book containing 54 prayers composed for various occasions and an essay on the nature of prayer.

Dr. Hurley, long-time OBU biology professor, was known throughout his university and church communities for the thoughtful and poetic quality of his publicly delivered prayers. Upon his death in 2004, Dr. Hurley's friends discovered among his papers these written prayers.

Most of the prayers have been arranged in free verse; a few are in prose. The volume has been divided into seven main sections, including prayers of peace and meditation; prayers of confession and penitence; prayers of season and sacrament; prayers about God's presence; and prayers about work and the world.

Hurley's prayers masterfully blend the man's deep thoughtfulness, lyrical eloquence, and searching spiritual pilgrimage. A stirring compilation of Christian poetry for all occasions, these prayers will be valuable as an instrument of devotional practice.
