All evening classes will have their final exams at the regularly scheduled class time during the final examination week.

Classes beginning at odd times or running across two periods will have their final exams at the time slot during which the class begins.

Examinations for all laboratories will be given during the last meeting of the class.

All examinations will be given in the regular classroom unless a room change is announced in class by the instructor. Instructors, please clear room changes in advance with Helen Cale, Academic Center.

Final examinations may not be waived or given out of schedule without the written prior approval of the Dean of the School or College administering the course; this includes the rescheduling of an entire class as well as individual exams.

Students with three or more final examinations on the same day may petition the Dean of the School or College which administers the course for possible rescheduling of one examination with the permission of the instructor.

Petition forms are available in the Office of the Deans and must be submitted to the appropriate Dean no later than Monday, May 3, 2010.
