

UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE STRUCTURE
2023-2024

FACULTY COUNCIL

The Faculty Council is composed of annually elected representatives from the voting faculty. The Faculty Council shall act as a representative body of the Faculty and shall lead the Faculty in carrying out the purposes stated in Article I of the Faculty Constitution. The Council shall deliberate on matters of general concern to the Faculty and shall serve as a liaison between the Faculty and Administration of the University in promoting excellence in the overall mission of OBU. The Council shall be able to place items on the agenda of regular Faculty meetings and to call Faculty meetings after proper notification has been given to the president. [Appendix B, Faculty Constitution Article IV (4)]

The Faculty Council in consultation with appropriate administrative officers of the University shall select and recommend to the President the faculty chairmen and faculty membership of standing committees of the University and shall review and make recommendations concerning the structure and work of these committees. At least one Council member shall serve on specific university committees as designated in the Bylaws. In addition, the Council may create special committees responsible to the Council. [Appendix B, Faculty Constitution Article IV (5)]
