

OKLAHOMA BAPTIST
UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF GRADUATE
AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies Degree Program – Course Listings

MA Common Core Course Listings

BTHS 5103	Old Testament Studies (3) An examination of contemporary issues in Old Testament studies. Emphasis on exegesis and major theological topics.
BTHS 5203	New Testament Studies (3) An examination of contemporary issues in New Testament studies, exegesis, and theology. This course will examine the major texts and themes with an emphasis on Biblical Theology.
BTHS 5303	Biblical Hermeneutics (3) A Study of the goal, means, and contemporary application of biblical interpretation. The course will examine how to find the meaning of the biblical text to communicate it effectively. The course will examine the interpretation of the various genre of the biblical text. The formation of the biblical Canon will also be examined.
BTHS 5403	Christian Theology (3) A survey of theological method and the principal doctrines of the Christian faith, to include revelation, Scripture, God, humanity, Christ, the Holy Spirit, salvation, the church, and last things. The course will seek to present Christian truth, edify the church, and advance Christian mission.
BTHS 5503	Spiritual Formation (3) A scriptural approach to the study of Christian spirituality and the practice of spiritual disciplines. The course will utilize biblical, classical, and contemporary materials to introduce the student to the theology, purpose, and practice of biblical spirituality. This course will also assist the student in pursuing intimacy with and conformity to Jesus Christ through personal spiritual disciplines.
BTHS 5603	Christian Worldview (3) An examination of biblical and theological essentials of a Christian view of reality and life. The course will also address philosophical aspects of worldview and essential Christian distinctions from major alternative worldviews.

Intercultural
Studies

INTC 6513	Theology and Philosophy of Mission (3) An examination of foundational components of a biblical and theological understanding of mission, to include the nature of God, the Gospel, and the Church in mission. The course will present biblical principles for the development of a theology and philosophy of mission, examine contemporary theologies and philosophies of mission and consider how to develop and apply a theology and philosophy of mission.
INTC 6523	Intercultural Communication (3) An examination of the principles and methods of communication between diverse cultures. The course will examine the various elements involved with individuals, groups, organizations, and the larger societal units as they communicate in an intercultural context. Some attention will be given to the dynamics of leadership relationships inter-culturally.
INTC 6533	Ethnographic Research (3) This course will examine the biblical concepts of people groups. In this course, learners will utilize social science models of research methodology, and will develop individual ethnographic interview skills. Cultural factors such as kinship, rituals and religion, and social segmentation will be explored. This course includes the development and application of a contextualized ministry based people group profile that identifies cultural, social, religious, and demographic factors.
INTC 6543	International Church Planting (3) An examination of the Biblical principles and the process of church planting with application to missions in the 21st century and particularly in varied cultural contexts. Special consideration will be given to the examination of the methods for effectively communicating the Biblical message and meaning to various people groups and in various contexts, and an examination of how to appropriately express the Christian life and important church and mission practices in varied cultural contexts.
INTC 6553	Contemporary Missiology and Intercultural Contexts (3) This course will examine the current philosophical and methodological issues in contemporary missiology, and how they are affected by various factors like religious pluralism, urbanization, globalization, religious extremism, new technologies, creative access, changing demographics, and Majority World Christians and varied cultural contexts.

OBU College of Graduate and Professional Studies

500 West University | Shawnee, OK 74804 | 405.585.4601 | okbu.edu/graduate

- INTC 6563 World Religions and Non-Christian Worldviews (3)
This course will present the content and practice of both major world religions and smaller religious groups that hold significant contemporary importance, including an analysis of the worldview of each.
-

Intercultural
Studies
Orality

- INTC 6513 Theology and Philosophy of Mission (3)
An examination of foundational components of a biblical and theological understanding of mission, to include the nature of God, the Gospel, and the Church in mission. The course will present biblical principles for the development of a theology and philosophy of mission, examine contemporary theologies and philosophies of mission and consider how to develop and apply a theology and philosophy of mission. This course assumes an intercultural context for its content. Prerequisite: BTHS 5403, Christian Theology
- INTC 6553 Contemporary Missiology and Intercultural Contexts (3)
This course will examine the current philosophical and methodological issues in contemporary missiology, and how they are affected by various factors like religious pluralism, urbanization, globalization, religious extremism, new technologies, creative access, changing demographics, and Majority World Christians and varied cultural contexts.
- ORAL 6733 Ethno Semantics and Worldview (3)
This course will use social anthropological tools to analyze various worldviews, noting their fields of meaning and modes of communication.
- ORAL 6743 Oral Cultures and the Use of Legends, Myths, and Proverbs (3)
This course will consider the interplay between worldview and traditional oral art forms, such as legends, myths, and proverbs, with particular attention to how worldviews are developed, preserved, transmitted, and transformed.
- ORAL 6753 Narrative Teaching Approaches for Oral Learners (3)
This course will examine the pedagogical approaches that serve oral learners best, paying special attention to narrative and participatory learning. This will include preparing students to teach oral learners effectively, utilizing traditional oral communication patterns and appropriate means of assessing learning.
- ORAL 6763 Techniques and Practices for Storytellers (3)
This course will examine the elements of effective storytelling in a variety of cultures for the purpose of equipping students to communicate Biblical truth through the use of stories and related activities.
- ORAL 6771 Practicum Project- Develop and Present a Set of Stories for a Particular Ethnographic Group (1)
In this course the student will develop a properly contextualized and organized set of biblical narratives for a particular ethnolinguistic people group.